

Freedom of Information Request

23rd December 2024

Question

1. What is the total number of patients attended by a resource from Scottish Ambulance Service in the two years from 1st January 2022 until 31st December 2023?
2. How many patients aged 0-2 years old (i.e. from birth until their 3rd birthday) were attended by a resource from Scottish Ambulance Service in the two years from 1st January 2022 until 31st December 2023?
3. How many patients aged 3-5 years old were attended by a resource from Scottish Ambulance Service in the two years from 1st January 2022 until 31st December 2023?
4. How many patients aged 6-11 years old were attended by a resource from Scottish Ambulance Service in the two years from 1st January 2022 until 31st December 2023?
5. How many patients aged 12-15 years old were attended by a resource from Scottish Ambulance Service in the two years from 1st January 2022 until 31st December 2023?
6. How many patients aged 16-17 years old were attended by a resource from Scottish Ambulance Service in the two years from 1st January 2022 until 31st December 2023?
7. How many patients aged 0-17 years old were conveyed by to an emergency department by a resource from Scottish Ambulance Service in the two years from 1st January 2022 until 31st December 2023?

Answer

Please see the table below detailing the information requested for the date range 01/01/2022 to 31/12/2023

Table 1 – Total number of under 18 year old patients attended by SAS by age range

Age	Number Attended
0-2	31888
3-5	12351
6-11	10878
12-15	11346
16-17	9350
Sum:	75813

Table 2 – Total number of under 18 year old patients attended by SAS and Conveyed to Hospital.

No Attended
55182